

Lucille was instrumental in the ministry of Rowan Baptist Church throughout her entire life. She held leadership positions in Rowan Baptist Church, the Eastern Baptist Association, Woman's Missionary Union, NC Baptist State Convention, North Carolina Community Development Association, and the Clinton Woman's Club. Lucille Ezzell Yancey, 91, was born on July 17, 1929 and died at home on May 15, 2021.

She was predeceased by her parents, Addison and Ida Ezzell, husband, Leonard, and sisters, Letha Yancey and Iris Parker. She is survived by her son, Scott (Cathy) and granddaughter, Taylor-Quinn Yancey; son, Trent (Carol) and grandson, Tyler (Yudy), and great-grandson, Mateo. Additional survivors include special nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Lucille retired as the Director of Community Development for the City of Clinton after serving in that role from 1973 to 1996. Ms. Lucille continued to serve as a resource for many community development professionals across the state. A collective group of NCCDA members formed a Summit Group to meet with Ms. Lucille for lunch and enjoy her quick wit and tenacity in her aging years.

During her tenure she chaired state and national boards and committees.

In Memory of Lucille Yancey
City of Clinton Planning
& CD Director
Former NCCDA President